Combating Trafficking in Persons Compliance Plan

MaxxPro® MRAPs System Technical Support Contract

Contract Number: W56HZV-15-D-0037

Period of Performance: 1 April 2015 - 31 March 2019

Navistar Defense is opposed to human trafficking and forced labor in any form. We are committed to working to mitigate the risk of human trafficking and forced labor in all aspects of our business. The US Government has a zero-tolerance policy regarding any Government employees and contractor personnel and their agents engaging in any severe form of trafficking in persons, defined to mean the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision or obtaining of a person for labor or services, through the use of force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage or slavery and sex trafficking.

Navistar Defense Personnel are required to comply with the provisions contained in the Federal Acquisition Regulation; Ending Trafficking in Persons (48 CFR Parts 1, 2, 9, 12, 22, 42, and 52) (the "FARs") and Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement: Further Implementation of Trafficking in Persons Policy (48 CFR Parts 203, 204, 212, 222, and 252) (the "DFARS") Executive Order 13627, "Strengthening Protections Against Trafficking in Persons in Federal Contracts," (the "Executive Order") as well as Navistar Defense Policy No. 05-06, Combating Trafficking in Persons (the "Navistar Defense Policy"):

To the extent these provisions differ in their requirements, the stricter requirements must be followed.

The following sets forth Navistar Defense's compliance plan for the above referenced contract, as required by FAR 52.222-50(h), based upon on the size and complexity of the contract and the nature and scope of the activities.

Additional awareness information about trafficking in persons may be found at the U.S. Department of State's Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons website at <http://www.state.gov/j/tip>.

Awareness Program

Pursuant to the FARs, contractors, contractor employees and their agents are prohibited from:

- Engaging in severe forms (i.e., using force, fraud or coercion) of trafficking in persons during the period of performance of a contract;
- Procuring commercial sex acts during the period of performance of a contract ;
- Using forced labor in the performance of a contract;
- Destroying, concealing, confiscating, or otherwise denying access by an employee to the employee's identity or immigration documents, such as passports or drivers' licenses, regardless of issuing authority;
- Using misleading or fraudulent recruiting practices during the recruitment of employees or offering of employment, such as failing to disclose, in a format and language accessible to the worker, basic information or making material misrepresentations during the recruitment of employees regarding the key terms and conditions of employment, including wages and fringe benefits, the location of work, the living conditions, housing and associated costs (if employer or agent provided or arranged), any significant costs to be charged to the employee, and, if applicable, the hazardous nature of the work;
- Using recruiters that do not comply with the local labor laws of the country in which the recruiting takes place;
- Charging employees recruitment fees;
- Failing to provide return transportation or pay for the cost of return transportation upon the end of employment, for an employee who was not a national of the country in which the work is taking place and who was brought into that country for the purposes of working on a U.S. Government contract, subcontract or portion(s) of contracts or subcontracts performed outside the United States;
- Failing to provide return transportation or pay for the costs of return transportation upon the end of employment, for an employee who is not a United States national and who was brought into the United States for the purpose of working on a U.S. Government contract or subcontract, if the payment of such costs is required under existing temporary worker programs or pursuant to a written agreement with the employee for portions of contracts and subcontracts performed inside the United States;
- Providing or arranging housing that fails to meet the host country housing and safety standards; and
- If required by law or contract, failing to provide an employment contract, recruitment agreement or other required work document in writing in a language the employee understands. If the employee must relocate to perform the work, the work document shall be provided to the employee at least five days prior to the employee relocating.

Any violation of the FARs, the DFARS, the Executive Order and/or Navistar's Policy could result in disciplinary action which may include but is not limited to, an employee's removal from a contract, reduction in benefits or termination of employment. For subcontractors and subcontractor employees, failure to comply with the requirements of the FARs, the DFARS and the Executive Order is grounds for Navistar Defense to take any and all appropriate actions, up to and including immediate termination of that subcontractor's contract with Navistar Defense

Employees

On an annual basis, Navistar Defense requires all employees to complete online Compliance Training and certify that they have read and understand the Navistar Defense Code of Conduct and agree to comply with the policies, procedures and principles of the Navistar Defense Policy and report any violations of which they are aware. The Navistar Defense Code of Conduct and the Navistar Defense Policy both of which are publicly posted on its website:

<http://www.navistardefense.com/NavistarDefense/ourcompany/corporategovernance>

Navistar Defense conducts in-person, all-hands compliance training approximately annually and as needed throughout the year. Such compliance training is targeted and customized for various business units and appropriate to the nature and scope of the activities to be performed.

A communication was sent to all Navistar Defense employees which included training on combating human trafficking, the Navistar Defense Policy, the Navistar Defense Code of Conduct and this compliance plan.

Subcontractors/Suppliers

Applicable FAR and DFARS clauses are "flowed down" to our subcontractors. Subcontractors are also provided links to the Navistar Defense Code of Conduct and the Navistar Defense Policy and asked to certify that they have read and understood those documents. A copy of subcontractor certifications are maintained on file with Navistar Defense.

Navistar Defense sent a communication to its suppliers, informing them of the finalization of the rules, Navistar Defense's expectations of their compliance with those rules, as applicable and providing the additional information and resources set forth in the comments to the revised rules. That communication is also posted on the Navistar Defense supplier website.

As new subcontractors and suppliers are brought on as Navistar Defense suppliers, Navistar Defense will include all pertinent certifications and trainings to policy as part of the new supplier setup.

Contingent Workers

Contingent workers are provided copies of Navistar Defense's Code of Conduct and the Navistar Defense Policy and asked to certify that they have read and understand the policy and code. They are also provided written training on combating human trafficking and asked to certify that they have read and understand the training material.
